NURSING SCHOOL SURVIVAL GUIDE

The biggest thing I do to survive nursing school is ensure that each day I have one hour of me time! This could be exercising, playing with my dog, hanging out with my husband, or scrolling on my phone. Sometimes I split this into two half hours. Often I either take a break from studying or use this as a way to wind down my day before sleeping.

² While all courses are completed online, you will need to attend clinical, practicum and immersion hours in person locally.
